DEDICATION

To our loyal friend

without whose initiative and aid this volume would not have been published, it is most gratefully dedicated by the author.

DOCTOR HENRY N. TORREY (B.S. 1900, Knox College; A.M. 1905, University of Michigan; M.D. 1906, Johns Hopkins University; Fellow of the American College of Surgeons 1912), is a prominent physician of Detroit, Michigan. He is Associate Surgeon of the Harper Hospital, Detroit; Surgical Director of the Michigan Mutual Liability Company; Surgeon in Chief of the Michigan Mutual Hospital; and President of the Michigan Association of Industrial Surgeons.

Dr. Torrey was born at Creston, Iowa, the second in a family of four, his parents being Dr. Bartlett Norton Torrey and Flora E. Reed. He married Nell B. Ford, daughter of Emory L. Ford and Ella I. Neat, and his family consists of a son, William F. Torrey, and a daughter, Eleanor F. Torrey.

Dr. Torrey has had an interesting military experience, having been Lieutenant (Reserve Corps U. S. A.) 1914-1917; Major (Reserve Corps U. S. Army) 1917-1919; Lt. Colonel (U. S. Army) 1919; and Commanding Officer of Base Hospital 17, 1919. Leaving the Training Camp at Plattsburg, N. Y. he was called to active service in the U. S. Army June 28, 1917 with the rank of Major, and was Surgical Director of Base Hospital 17, U. S. Army. He left New York City for France on the "Mongolia" July 13, 1917, landing at Havre, France, July 27, and proceeded to station at Dijon, France.

For active field service Dr. Torrey was in front line work during the offensives of August to September 1917; was with the British on the Somme; was attached to Field Hospital 137 B. E. F. at Gouzeaucourt and the Casualty Clearing Station 55 B. E. F. at Tincourt near Peronne. During September and part of October, 1917 he was with the French near Soissons during the drive on Chemin des Dames, and in October and November of that year he was sent on Special Commission to the Italian front (Izonzo), being present during the German-Austrian drive on the Izonzo front which resulted in the Italian retreat to the Piave.

March and April, 1918 Dr. Torrey was attached to the French 3me Armie in the Noyon Secteur, with Auto — Chir. No. 7, and went through the big offensive of the Germans and the rout of Gough's English Army. April and May, 1918 he made an inspection trip to field hospitals in the American sectors (Toul, Luneville and Vosges) and in September was with the American First Army in the St. Michiel offensive. September to November he was with the American First Army during the Meuse-Argonne offensives.

While living in a dugout in the Argonne forest Dr. Torrey contracted double pneumonia and was sent back by ambulance forty-five miles to Verdun and thence by hospital train to Limoges. Appointment as commanding officer of Base Hospital 17 in January, 1919 was followed by promotion to the rank of Lieut. Colonel in February, and the following April Dr. Torrey embarked from Brest for Boston and was given his discharge at Camp Dix, N. J. April 23, 1919.

Concerning the nature of his work in Europe Dr. Torrey writes: "My field service consisted of first line operating, during offensives, and we were lent to the existing front line surgical organizations of the various Allies during these offensives. We operated sometimes in tents, but generally in the first and second line dugouts. Our cases were the seriously wounded who, because of their grave condition, could not be transported. For this reason we handled only abdominal injuries, lung and brain cases, and major fractures. I was in command of an operating team which consisted of the operator, his assistant, the anaesthetist, and the corps men. Nurses were used when we were not too far forward. We were attached to mobile units, carrying our own supplies, and so could move from one locality to another in a very short time. As soon as there was a lull in the battle on the sector where we were, we were promptly moved to another sector where an offensive was about to begin. In this way we saw service in many sectors on the various fronts and were attached at one time or another to the various Allies, and always at times of offensives."

Besides his close attention to his professional duties and the writing of a number of articles on medical and surgical subjects which have been published over his signature, Dr. Torrey has found time for relaxation in travel and in the hunting of big game, which last pastime has taken him to the Rockies, Alaska, Nova Scotia, Hudsons Bay, Africa, Asia and Europe. During a recent trip to Europe he went to Combe St. Nicholas and was much interested in his visit at the home of our English ancestors.

INTRODUCTION

The French have a proverb, "Qui s'excuse, s'accuse." This is not an apology, but an explanation. The literary critics who reviewed Volume One of this genealogy took note of its monotony of style, its paucity of imagination, and the absence of all plot. My own regret, as I look it over, is occasioned by the things that I was unable to discover and the few inaccuracies that have been called to my attention. Now genealogy is not an exact science, like mathematics. It is a popular fallacy that each person must necessarily have been born at one certain time and place, but I have, for example, one Torrey who was born May 19, 1847 according to his own letter (and he was present at the time), —he was born May 19, 1848 according to the published records of the town which witnessed his advent,—and he was born March 19, 1847 according to an old family Bible.

I am not, by the way, such an extreme fundamentalist as to accept the Bible as authoritative "from cover to cover" where two copies contain facts at variance with each other. In many cases the authors do not seem to be "inspired". Unlike the author of other books a genealogist simply cannot draw upon his imagination. Where a Torrey girl has children born to her after her death and baptizes her offspring several years before their birth, some strain is brought upon the judgment of a compiler. All that I can say is that with a vast mass of accumulated data, listed and copied and checked by a number of able and careful helpers, and with dates corrected and recorrected by different correspondents, I have done all that is humanly possible to prevent "errors and omissions". If anyone thinks that I have had an easy job let him try it himself.

My earnest desire has been to publish a "Genealogy of All Torreys in America." All that I have been able to accomplish has been to produce a genealogy of all Torreys that have sufficient interest in their family to cooperate with the compiler. I have written to considerably over 1600 different Torrey descendants and to date I have received replies from just 846. Do a little subtracting. I wish, however, to extend my thanks to the many who have evidenced in various ways their interest in this work, but before doing this it may be of interest to record briefly the history of the thirty years of pleasant labor which have culminated in the production of this volume.

About 1895 some misinformed individual wrote me asking for some data on his Torrey ancestry, saying, "I am told that you are an authority on Torrey genealogy." I wrote back that I "was not but would be",—for the idea took hold upon my fancy, and I started in to list and tabulate all of the names that I could find in the limited number of genealogical and vital record books in the Princeton library. As the work grew I found it necessary to keep it card indexed, and also had to evolve the Logical Genealogical Numbering System as the only practical method of numbering a growing record with continual interpolations. During a five year period when I lived near New York I went through all the published genealogies of other families in the New York Library for Torrey data and about this same time I visited Mr. H. A. Newton, 242113A6, then a resident of Weymouth, Mass. and he kindly let me have, for copy, his large and valuable collection of material covering his own branch and the Torreys of Weymouth. Descendants of the compilers of the two partial Torrey genealogies, that by John Torrey (1885) and by Dolphus Torrey (1890) sent to me all the unpublished material that had accumulated during their several investigations. I also searched practically all the wills, deeds, town and church records and cemetery inscriptions of Massachusetts and most of those in the other New England states, — the census of 1850 for many states, and the pension records of the Revolution and the War of 1812, at Washington.

During the year 1915 I was fortunate in working out a very difficult ancestry by a chance reference in a Plymouth deed, — the ancestry of Col. Jay L. Torrey 2134334 (to whom Volume One is dedicated) then a resident of Embar, Wyoming. July 2, 1916 I was seated at my desk at Lakehurst, N. J., where I then resided, and answering a ring on my telephone I found at the New York end Col. Torrey. He said that he had come east to be with his brother, who was not expected to live, and as no change was likely for some days he asked if he might come to Lakehurst to see my Torrey records. I told him to bring his grip and spend a few days. This he did, and we had a very enjoyable visit from him. After he left I heard nothing from him until some time in October when I received a letter which quite surprised me. He wrote that he would like to see my Torrey material published, and that if I would undertake this labor he would send me at once a check for $1500. Details were arranged and I engaged a stenographer who spent eighteen months' entire time in the collection and tabulation of material.

When Col. Torrey's brief illness and unexpected decease brought our labors to an end, all thought of publication vanished. But in 1923 the visionary idea obsessed me of sending a circular to the 1600 Torrey descendants in my address book stating that if they would contribute the expense I would publish as much as possible of my material. Within a few days the first check (for $250) came in and before long the entire amount necessary was forthcoming and Volume One, down to the year 1800, was published in 1924.

It seemed unlikely that the Torreys of America would care to raise another fund to publish the remaining material, from 1800 to date, but in 1928 I decided to send out another circular like the first. The result was not encouraging and I had about decided to give up the attempt when I received an unexpected letter from Dr. Henry N. Torrey of Detroit, to whom this volume is dedicated, stating that he had just returned from a trip to Europe in the course of which he had visited Combe St. Nicholas, the home of our English ancestors. His deep interest manifested itself in the circular letter which he sent, shortly after, to the Torreys of America offering to donate one-third as much as all the others together if the necessary amount could be secured to publish Volume Two. His efforts were crowned with success, and this book is the result.

To Mrs. E. M. Pursley, 12322123B, all of the name of Torreyson in the United States owe a deep debt of gratitude for her indefatigable labors which finally unearthed the evidence which enabled me to connect them with the Torreys, as explained in proper place in this book. Practically all of the dates and data of the Torreysons were gathered by her.

Dr. Henry M. Tory, (NS) 342, has labored hard to supply most of the data covering the Nova Scotia Branch, and his interest and efforts will mean much to those of this family who are scattered over the United States and Canada.

Mr. Gilbert S. Cocks, (NY) 3B2, has provided or enabled me to secure most of the material bearing upon the New York Branch of the Torrey family.

Mr. Clarence A. Torrey, 21511821, has again with his expert genealogical experience, his advice, and his very extended and much appreciated research work, given invaluable assistance in making the following records more complete and accurate.

Mrs. Francis C. McMath, 151313F, has aroused my deepest admiration for her wonderful energy, enthusiasm and efficiency. At the advanced age of ninety-one her long and clearly written letters to me and to many others, her unusual memory for facts and details and her activity in going after missing data puts most of my correspondents to shame. As one of my very few correspondents of the Seventh Generation, and probably the oldest, I have prevailed upon her to allow me to insert her picture opposite her entry in this book.

Let me here express my appreciation of the interest, keen insight, and precision of Mr. William H. Evans, who has set the type for all the text of both volumes of this genealogy. His judgment in manipulating with faultless accuracy the complications of a work of this nature has been a constant wonder to me.

I cannot close this list of acknowledgments without again explaining the part that my wife has played in its preparation. She has done as much work as I have in the preparation of material for the printer and in the unearthing of missing data by correspondence, and without her aid this work could never have been undertaken.

The following contributors have, according to their means and ability provided the money essential to the publication of this book, and to them, again, the Torreys of America are under obligation for its production.

Explanatory

THE LOGICAL GENEALOGICAL REFERENCE SYSTEM. The number belonging to each child is derived from that of its father by placing at the end of the number assigned to the father a letter for each daughter and a figure for every son in the order of birth. Thus, if a person's number is 124B3, he is the third son of the second daughter of the fourth son of the second son of the eldest son. Also, he belongs to the fifth generation.

The purpose of this work makes the arrangement by generations more suitable than the usual order. All descendants will be found in the same order in each successive generation,—first the sons and then the daughters in order of birth in each family. An asterisk (*) denotes that the person so indicated will appear in fuller detail on a later page. A bracket [ ] denotes a date or fact which is not established with certainty.

VOLUME ONE covers the first six generations in America beginning with the immigration in 1640, and also our English ancestry.

ARRANGEMENT OF VOLUME TWO. Since the publication of the first volume many additional facts and dates have come to light, several inaccuracies have been discovered through publication of public records, and space now permits the publication of historical and biographical matter, especially in the fifth and sixth generations, which could not be included in Volume One. Therefore, Volume Two contains notes on individuals of all generations. Those who are not interested in these additions to earlier generations may turn at once to the SEVENTH GENERATION which takes up the genealogical sequence where Volume One ended. Where data in Volume Two differs from that in Volume One, that in Volume Two may be taken as correction of Volume One as established by later or more accurate evidence.

First Generation

2, LIEUT. JAMES TORREY, wife ANN HATCH. She was baptized Dec. 3, 1626 at Wye, England. Her complete ancestry may be found in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 70, page 245. Her second husband, John Phillips, d. May 21, 1691 at Duxbury.

CHILD: 2D, Joanna, m. May 3, 1709 Thomas Lambert.

4, LIEUT. JOSEPH TORREY, wife ————. I am obsessed with the belief that Joseph Torrey had a son, Joseph Torrey, Jr. An unrecorded will (Portsmouth Probate) dated January 29, 1670 of Thomas Cooke names, among others who were relatives and as one legatee, "Joseph Torrey, Senior." (Genealogical Magazine, Vol. 3, page 119.) There is a vague chance that this might lead to the discovery of Joseph's wife.

Second Generation

1A, NAOMI TORREY, husband JOHN LOWELL.

CHILD: 1AA, Ruth, almost certainly m. Nathaniel Reynolds.

21, DEACON JAMES TORREY, first wife LYDIA WILLS.

Second wife, ELIZABETH RAWLINS.

Third wife MRS. EUNICE (TURNER) DEANE, m. July 30, 1701 at Scituate, Mass. She was b. Apr. 10, 1661 and d. Oct. 15, 1732 at Dorchester, Mass.; dau. of Thomas Turner and Sarah (Hyland); m. 1st Oct. 24, 1684 Isaac Buck, Jr. of Scituate; m. 2nd about 1690 Jonas Deane of Scituate, 2 ch.; m. 3rd James Torrey.

24, JONATHAN TORREY, wife RUTH FRY.

CHILD: 24A, Mary, m. John Norton.

2A, DAMARIS TORREY, husband RICHARD PROUTY.

CHILDREN: 2A3 Jonathan, b. Sept. 1, 1682; m. Dec. 2, 1701 Elizabeth Howe. 4, Isaac, b. Nov. 18, 1689; m. Oct. 11, 1711 Elizabeth Merritt. 5, William, b. Jan. 30, 1694-5; m. 1st Dec. 13, 1728 Elizabeth Garnet; m. 2nd Nov. 15, 1733 Jemima Tower.

2C, SARAH TORREY, first husband RICHARD WARREN.

Second husband THOMAS EWER. He was b. Dec. 1663; son of Thomas; m. 1st Mercy Manter dau. of John and Martha (Lambert); m. 2nd Oct. [1689] Elizabeth Lovell, dau. of John and Jane Hatch who was sister of Ann Hatch No. 2; Elizabeth was b. Oct. 27 or 28, 1660 and d. May 20, [1712]; m. 3rd Sept. 28, 1712 Sarah (Torrey) Warren No. 2C.

3A, MARIE TORREY, husband JOHN DAVIS. He was a blacksmith.

CHILDREN: 3AA, Marie or Mary, b. Apr. 6, 1676; d. Oct. 6, 1694. 3AB, Abigail, (Note: This will change the letter in reference number of her descendants.)

4A, ELIZABETH TORREY, husband JOHN RANDALL. He d. about 1684-5 at Westerly, R. I. Res. Westerly.

CHILDREN: 4A1, John, b. 1666; d. at Westerly. 2, Stephen, b. about 1668. 3, Matthew, b. 1671 d. at Hopkinton, R. I. 4, Peter, d. at Preston, Conn. (Note: There is much evidence in support of this entry.)

Third Generation

123, SAMUEL TORREY, wife ABIGAIL BRIDGE. She was b. Sept. 27, 1681 and d. after 1748; dau. of Samuel and Hannah.

131, DEACON MICAJAH TORREY, wife SARAH BATT. She was b. Jan. 18, 1673 at Boston, Mass. and d. May 10, 1763; dau. of Paul and Sarah (Willson) who later married Josiah Torrey No. 14; m. 2nd Nov. 22, 1725 Deacon Samuel White.

152, WILLIAM TORREY, wife SUSANNAH GIDDINGS. He d. Mar. 1, 1779 at Mendon.

CHILDREN: 152C, Martha, bapt. May 16, 1742 at Milford. D, Mary, bapt. Mar. 15, 1747 at Milford.

15B, JUDITH TORREY, husband BENJAMIN BOSWORTH. He was b. about 1685 and was an unrecorded son of John and Sarah ( ) Bosworth who lived at Hull, Mass., until their removal to Rhode Island. (Bosworth Genealogy).

211, JAMES TORREY, wife SARAH COLLAMORE. She was b. July 12, 1673, dau. of Anthony and Sarah (Chittenden).

212, WILLIAM TORREY, first wife MARGARET BUCK. She was b. Aug. 7, 1687 at Scituate; dau. of Isaac Buck, Jr. and Eunice (Turner) who later married James Torrey No. 21.

21E, EUNICE TORREY, husband HEZEKIAH BARBER. He was b. Jan. 25, 1694-5 at Bridgewater, Mass.; son of James and Elizabeth (Hyde). Blacksmith and innholder. She m. 2nd (int. Feb. 6, 1745-6) Jonas Leonard of Boston.

CHILDREN: 21E1, Jesse, b. Jan. 31, 1723-4; d. Feb. 11, 1723-4. 2, Jesse, b. Feb. 2, 1724-5; d. May 2, 1734. A, Eunice, b. Oct. 8, 1732; m. 1755 John Wilcocks. B, Lois, b. Aug. 29, 1737; d. Sept. 2, 1739. C, Patience, b. Aug. 17, 1739. D, Grace, b. Aug. 17, 1739; d. Dec. 1, 1740. E, Elizabeth, b. July 16, 1741; m. Oct. 15, 1757 John Spare; 4 sons, 5 daus.

241, JONATHAN TORREY, first wife MARGARET POOL. He died Apr. 9, 1781.

24A, MARY TORREY, husband JOHN NORTON. She was b. Sept. 25, 1676 at Weymouth, Mass. He was b. abt. 1674 and d. Dec. 6, 1730.

CHILDREN: 24AA, Mary, b. 1700; m. Oct. 25, 1718 Christopher Beetle. B, Jemima, b. 1702; m. Cornelius Dunham. 1, John, b. 1704; m. Nov. 23, 1724 Hepsibah Coffin. C, Rachel, b. 1706; m. Joseph Coleman. D, Jerusha, b. 1708; m. Dec. 9, 1735 Ichabod Wiswall.

Second husband WILLIAM STACEY.

ANN TORREY, who can hardly be any other than the above, had intention of marriage published May 24, 1746 at Barrington, R. I. to Timothy Allen. Perhaps her intentions were never realized; however there can be no question but that the Ann Torrey who, according to the Chaffee Genealogy married Ephraim Chaffee and William Stacey and had children as above was No. 142A, as will be seen from the names of her children. Nathan Hudson was of Monson, Mass. Sarah was b. in Wales, Mass.

142B, EUNICE TORREY, husband JOHN LANGDON. He was son of Paul and Mrs. Mary H. (Stacy) according to a correspondent.

12321, SAMUEL TORREY, first wife DEBORAH TORREY (126A). She was dau. of Haviland and Elizabeth (Croade).

12322, JOHN TORREY, wife MRS. ELEANOR (CARY) KIDDER, m. about 1755. Lived at Boston and Woodstock, Conn; hatter and feltmaker.

CHILDREN: 123221, John Torrey; changed his name to "John Torreyson."* 2, Samuel.*

JOHN TORREY, was born in Boston, Mass., and resided there at least until October 7, 1768, on which date he was bondsman for his sister-in-law, Mehitable (Kneeland) Torrey, widow and administratrix of John's brother, Samuel Torrey 12321 "of Boston, shopkeeper". In this bond he is called "John Torrey of Boston, felt maker". He appears earlier in Boston, March 16, 1757 in a deed reading as follows:- "I, John Torrey, of Boston, felt maker, and Eleanor, my wife, which said Eleanor is one of the daughters and heirs of James Carey, late of Boston, dec'd., gentleman, to Jonathan Carey, cagg-maker of Boston, land in Fish St., Boston". Jonathan was her brother, as shown by the following will dated Oct. 8, 1745 and proved Dec. 12, 1745 (the "John" must be an error, either of the recorder or of my copyist):- "Will of John Carey of Boston, — wife Sarah, — five children, James Carey, Hannah Ingolson, — Jonathan Carey, Freelove Werden, Elener Kidder, Wife, son Jonathan, and Daniel Ingolson, executors. Witnesses, Clemens Collins, John ————, Joseph Gendall." (See 1232A). The estate of "Mr. John Torrey, late of Woodstock, deceased" was administered Jan. 5, 1807, Capt. William Bowen being administrator. Widow allowed for housekeeping expenses the whole personal estate. Samuel Torrey (probably his son) "on settlement of partnership account $427.67", being by far the largest creditor. In the inventory are included,

"Hatter's tools, — ten felt hats partly finished, — one furr hat." Boston records say: "Torrey, John, 78, of Boston, died at Woodstock, Conn., Oct. 26, 1806."

12324, EBENEZER TORREY, first wife SUSANNAH TORREY, 152B, m. Nov. 22, 1759 at Mendon, Mass.

CHILD: 123241, William (data in Vol. One.)

Second wife SARAH BARRON, m. Apr. 16, 1765 at Boston. She has a gravestone in Granary Burial Ground, Boston.

CHILDREN: 123242, Nathaniel &c. as in Vol. One.

EBENEZER TORREY. Two Ebenezers, both "of Boston" (12324 and 12218) foolishly married two Sarahs, thus confusing our records. Ebenezer 12218 tried to simplify matters by removing permanently to Lancaster and dying there, but his wife Sarah complicated matters by selecting Boston as her death place, "Sept., 1784, aged 40". Sarah 12324 died in Boston Feb. 9, 1791, aged 42. Ebenezer 12324 had a preliminary matrimonial venture with a third cousin Susannah 152B which seems to have netted him one son, William. "Sept. 14, 1784 Ebenezer Torrey of Boston, rope maker, was made administrator of the estate of his son William Torrey, late of Boston, chaise maker, deceased. Bondsman Robert Bobbins of Boston." But:- Boston Deaths in the Registrar's Office say: "1784, Sept.—William Torrey, aged 24, son of Ebenezer and Sarah (Continental Journal)". Probably the reporter did not know that Sarah was his step mother. By his second wife Ebenezer had two sons, Ebenezer and Nathaniel. The first may be briefly dismissed with this enigmatical record:- "Boston Baptisms: Sept. 8, 1771, Ebenezer Torrey son of Mr. Ebenezer Torrey, obt". (Which was "obt"?) Nathaniel married and had one son of same name who died at the age of 28. I think this line is now extinct. My last references are "widow Martha Torrey (123232) deeded property in Boston Oct. 13, 1821, a year after the death of her only child". "Feb. 22, 1790, Ebenezer Torrey of Boston, ropemaker sold to Nathaniel Torrey of Boston, ropemaker" (his son) "a rope walk in Cow Lane for $80." This was a month before his death and probably in lieu of a will.

1232A, SARAH TORREY, husband JOSEPH GENDALL, m. May 29, 1752 at Boston. She was b. Aug. 1, 1728 at Boston. Residence Boston.

CHILD: Abigail (alive 1762,— see will of 1232.)

12411, COLONEL JOSEPH TORREY, wife HANNAH FISK, m. Dec. 1757. He was b. Feb. 4, 1732-3 at South Kingston, R. I.

COLONEL JOSEPH TORREY was a resident of Killingly, Connecticut, at least as early as 1763. His birthplace is South Kingston, Rhode Island as given in the Vital Record of Rhode Island, by James A. Arnold. His wife, Hannah Fiske, was a sister of his father's second wife.

12413, DR. SAMUEL HOLDEN TORREY, wife ANNA GOULD.

DOCTOR SAMUEL HOLDEN TORREY resided first at Branford, Conn., the residence of his wife, as shown by the following deed: "Deed of land Branford, Connecticut to Samuel Holden Torrey from Philoemen Robbins and Hannah Robbins dated March 27, 1761;" "Deed of land Branford, Conn., to Anne, wife of Samuel Holden Torrey from William Gould, dated September 16, 1761." They soon removed to Killingly, Conn., as shown by deed from Isa Cady, dated April 6, 1767. His wife Anna brought with her four slaves as part of her marriage portion; it is related that when she went for an airing in her chase they trotted by its side. Dr. Torrey had a much more thorough medical training than was common at that period, having studied several years with his father-in-law, Dr. William Gould of Branford.

Dr. Torrey lived on the "home farm" in Killingly, where he was an esteemed and successful physician.

On the flyleaf of an old book of his is the date, August 12, 1759; the exact date of his birth being unknown this date is of interest as it might be his twenty-first birthday.

The will of his wife, Anna Torrey, dated January 15, 1817, makes an interesting distribution of her personal belongings, and names the following: Son Samuel's daughter Anne; son William G. Torrey's son Holden; Son Oliver's daughter Abbe; son Erastus; daughter Gracia; son Augustus.

12415, OLIVER TORREY, wife TAMAR DAVIS

OLIVER TORREY enlisted September, 1776 in Captain Park's Company and April, 1777 in Captain Gardner's Company of Artillery. He was in the battle of Rhode Island in Colonel Dyer's Regiment under General Lovell's Brigade, according to his Revolutionary Pension Record. He was a farmer and large land owner in Killingly, Conn., where his children were all born.

12522, JOSIAH TORREY, first wife OLIVE PRATT. Second wife MRS. OLIVE (BARTON) SEGUR.

"GOVERNOR" JOSIAH TORREY. His father settled in the western part of Abington, Mass., he was born, and married his first wife at Bridgewater. His first child, John, was born in 1788 in Plainfield, Mass., after he had removed to that place and settled on the farm lately owned by C. W. Packard. His death and that of his second wife, also at Plainfield, showed that this was his later residence. He served in the Revolutionary War, volunteering soon after the battle of Lexington, as a private for eight months in a company commanded by William Reede in Colonel Thomas's Regiment. January, 1777, he volunteered as a private under Captain Edward Cobb and Colonel Jones, and in February, 1778, he volunteered as artificer for ten months; according to his statement in his Pension Record. He was called by the old people "Governor Torrey" but how he obtained the title is not clear. The hill on which his house stands still bears his name.

12524, PHILIP TORREY, first wife MARY DYER, m. Feb. 14, 1793 at Abington, Mass. She was b. 1768-9 and d. Mar. 26, 1816 at Abington aged 47; (prob. dau. of Jacob Dyer and Abigail (Reed) and b. Apr. 26, 1769 at Abington.)

Second wife, ROSANDA (PORTER) NASH. She m. 1st May 17, 1792 Daniel Nash at Abingnton; he d. Nov. 13, 1803 at Abington; she m. 2nd Philip Torrey.

PHILIP TORREY, a resident of Bridgewater and Abington, Mass., enlisted April 18, 1776 as a private under Captain Pope and Lieutenant Isaac Fuller, August 22, 1776; he again enlisted under Captain Joseph Trufant and Lieutenant Joseph Poole, as he tells in his Pension Record.

12551, DEACON JOSIAH TORREY, JR., wife RUTH REED No. 241A1A.

JOSIAH TORREY, who was a Deacon of the Second Congregational Church of Abington, Mass., inherited a large estate from his uncle, Josiah Torrey, 1254, who was married but had no children and who brought him up to manhood. His will, in 1822, names his wife Ruth and daughters Mehitable, Hannah King, Elizabeth & Ruth. The will of his daughter Elizabeth of Abington, spinster, dated 1852, mentions sisters Hannah King and Ruth Torrey.

12552, CALEB TORREY, wife MARY MILLER.

CALEB TORREY married at Rehoboth, Mass., where he was a resident since 1776, as shown by a deed of his father William, dated March 25, 1783, in which he mentions his son Caleb Torrey of Rehoboth, County of Bristol, tanner. His will dated February 13, 1808, filed April 5, 1808, gives his residence as Sutton, his occupation yeoman, and names his wife, Mary Torrey and his children Caleb (only son), Nancy, Mary and Hannah, and refers to real estate located in Douglas, Massachusetts.

12642: DANIEL TORREY has the following interesting military record: July 10, 1775, Daniel Torrey, private, yeoman, aged 22, from the town of Thornton, N. H., enlisted in Captain Peter Coffin's Company. April 16, 1777 he enlisted for three years in Captain Hawkin's Company, 3d New Hampshire Regiment. He received 9 - 18 - 0 for one month's pay and bounty in Captain William Harper's Company, Colonel Wyman's Regiment for Canada from New Hampshire; being mustered July 16, 1776. He received 2 - 7 - 4 pay for two months and eleven days from Jan. 5 to Mar. 15, 1777, in Captain Daniel Gregore's Company, - Colonel David Gilman's Regiment raised by New Hampshire to reinforce the Army in New York. He is listed in a return of men enlisted for three years, or during the war, belonging to the 4th Regiment of Militia in New Hampshire to complete the three battalions of the Continental Army, stating that he was from Brentwood, N. H. and that he enlisted May 8, 1777 under Captain Gray. He is named as "Daniel Torrey, abode, Brentwood," in Muster role in Captain James Gray's Company in Colonel Alexander Scammel's Regiment; mustered May 6, 1777, with a state bounty of 20 pounds. A list of non-commissioned officers and privates in New Hampshire names Daniel Torrey as in Captain Gregore's Company in Third New Hampshire Regiment, commanded by Colonel Alexander Scammell, private 3 years, discharged April 18, 1780 — service in above Company being apparently from January 1, 1780 to January 1, 1781, with discharge as shown. He died June 30, 1794 at Fort Recovery, Ohio in action with the Indians.

12652, THOMAS TORREY, wife ELIZABETH HOLMES.

THOMAS TORREY, was a sea Captain and died on one of his voyages. One record says he died at Havana, Cuba, December, 1798 and was buried there. In the Oak Grove Cemetery at Plymouth are the following inscriptions relating to this family.

"Captn, Thomas Torrey born February 28, 1799, died August 8, 1847." His wife taught school early in Plymouth History.

"Thomas Torrey died at Havana, Cuba, 1802 aged 40 years."

"Elizabeth Torrey, widow of Thomas died December 7, 1850, aged 86 years."

"George H. Torrey, son of the above, died July 8, 1809 aged 19 years."

"Haviland Torrey, son of the above, died November 9, 1820 at Havana Id. of Cuba, aged 24 years." (The second entry which has given us 1762 as approximate date of birth of Thomas Torrey, does not agree with the previous statement, the source of which is not of record.)

Sergeant Thomas Torrey served as private from July 1 to December 31, 1779 in Captn. Barnes' Light Infantry in Col. Nixon's Regiment. May 1, 1780, he was appointed Sergeant in Colonel Treadwell's Company of Massachusetts Artillery in Colonel John Crane's Regiment, according to his Pension Record. He saw considerable Military service.

12661, CAPTAIN WILLIAM TORREY, wife MARY SPROAT or SPROUTT.

CHILD: 12661A, Mary, b. Aug. 4, 1786; d. June 9, 1834; m. Feb. 9, 1806 George Little, Jr.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM TORREY, was a resident of Pembroke, where his children were all born. He was a commissioned officer in the Revolution from January 1, 1777 to the close of the war in 1783. He was Adjutant and Lieutenant thirty-eight months in the Second Regiment of the Massachusetts Capitol Line and commanded by Captain John Bailey until the end of 1780 and then until the close of the war, by Colonel Ebenezer Sproat, according to his Pension Record. In 1775, on April 19th, he was a member of a Company of Minute Men at the Battle of Lexington. He was an original member of the Society of Cincinnati.

In the old cemetery at Hanover Center, Massachusetts, are the following inscriptions on one monument. "William Torrey died October 18, 1828, aged 77 years." "Mrs. Mary Torrey died January 28, 1826, aged 75 years." "Mrs. Mary Little died June 9, 1834, aged 37 years."

12662, COLONEL JOHN TORREY, first wife MERIAH MORTON.

Second wife, ELIZABETH HARLOW.

COLONEL JOHN TORREY spent his life at Plymouth, Mass., but no occupation is indicated. One deed dated August 16, 1793 conveys for twenty-one pounds five shillings one half of an undivided pew in the meeting house of the First Precinct of Plymouth, "John Torrey of Plymouth, gentleman, to Roseter Cotten of Plymouth, physician;" Betsy, wife of John Torrey, relinquished her dower rights therein, in 1790 and a guardian was appointed for Mariah M. & Betsy, daughters of John Torrey of Plymouth. On Burial Hill, Plymouth, are found the following grave stones covering this family.

"To the Memory of / Mrs. Meriah Torrey wife of / Mr. John Torrey who ded'd / July ye. 20th, 1782 in ye. 25th /

ye. of her age / Her life agreeable / her / Death Triumphant / Through / Her Savior /"
"To the Memory of / Mary Torrey daughter of / Colonel John & / Mrs. Elizabeth Torrey who died / March 2d, 1803 aged / 3 month & 2 / days /"
"In Memory of John son of Mr. John d Torrey & Mrs. Mariah his wife who died / October ye. 7th, 1779 / aged / 1 ye. 4 months & 18 / days /"
"Erected / to / the memory of Betsy Torrey / wife of / Colonel John Torrey / who died / April 15, 1810 / aged forty-seven years / She pined in thought /"

Lt. John Torrey, who was probably 12622, served sometime in Captain Benjamin Rider's Company under Colonel Lathrop's Regiment, he marched from Plymouth for Bristol December 11, 1776.

12663, CAPTAIN JOSEPH TORREY, third wife SARAH THOMAS. She died Feb. 9, 1837 at Foxboro, Mass.

CAPTAIN JOSEPH TORREY has the following grave stones in Fernhill Cemetery, Hanson, Massachusetts: "Captain Jos. Torrey died March 23, 1822, aged 58 years. Phoebe, wife of Jos. Torrey died April 5, 1801 in her 35th year. Mary Dodge wife of Jos. Torrey died August 10th, 1809," (This probably mis-copied for 1802) "in her 28th year. The widow, Sarah, relict of Jos. Torrey died April 9, 1837 aged 63 years. Nathaniel Cushing son of Captain Jos. and Mary Dodge Torrey died Sept. 27, 1802, aged 2 months. Charlotte Torrey died September 20, 1835, aged 39 years.

1266A, MARY TORREY, first husband ABNER BOURNE. He was b. 1747 and d. 1806, son of Ebenezer and Abigail (Newcombe).

13122, DANIEL TORREY, wife HANNAH JACOBS.

DANIEL TORREY was a trader of Weymouth; in the early history of Boston we find the following: "Port arrivals—Nov. 14, 1768, Scoonr. Endeavour, from Liverpool,—Robt. Stevenson; Dan'l Torrey, and others, Traders." His will, made June 13, 1791, proved February 12, 1805, says, "Daniel Torrey of Weymouth, Yeoman, wife Hannah; daughters during minority, land in Liverpool, N. S. Two daughters Sophia and Hannah, my real estate in Province of N. S. Executor, Solomon Lovell." Administration of the Estate of Hannah Torrey of Weymouth, widow, was granted to Lemuel Humphrey of Weymouth, January 3, 1826.

13142: JACOB TORREY, wife LYDIA JENKS, m. int. May 21, 1769, Rochester, Mass.

13145: DAVID TORREY of Ashford, Connecticut, had deed of land in 1774 from his father James Torrey.

13146, MICAJAH TORREY, wife LUCY LOTHROP, m. June 17, 1784 at Bozrah, Conn.

CHILDREN: 13146A, Susannah. B, Wealthy, b. abt. 1784 and d. Dec. 24, 1821, unm. 13146P, A child, d. July 12, 1801.

13147, DOCTOR JAMES TORREY, wife DEBORAH (FITCH) WHEELER.

CHILDREN: 13147D, Belinda, b. Jan., 1782; d. Mar. 3, 1789.

DOCTOR JAMES TORREY was first a tanner of hides; he afterwards studied medicine and began his practice in Lebanon, Conn. He then removed to Nantucket and continued to practice his profession, there marrying Deborah Fitch, daughter of Gorham Fitch of Nantucket. He served six weeks as surgeon's mate in the Revolution, also at one time was surgeon of the 2nd Regiment, 1st Buglers, 1st Division Massachusetts Militia. His commission was dated Sept. 3, 1800, and his discharge June 16, 1812. He removed to South Weymouth in the year 1783 and settled at the spot now the corner of Pleasant and Union Streets. He is described as "A small man, with dark complexion, hazel eyes, and a very strong hand to pull teeth." Dr. Torrey was a seventh son and like all seventh sons in those days was supposed to have peculiar, not to say miraculous powers, in curing "Kings Evil" by the laying on of hands or "touch," though in his later years he entirely discontinued this treatment. He was, however, particularly successful in this disease and also in "throat ailments" and had patients from Boston and other places who boarded in his family to receive treatment. For more than thirty years he was the only physician in South Weymouth, where he acquired a fair business. As seems logical, he left seven children at his death. His will, dated December 9, 1817, proved January 6, 1818, reads, "James Torrey of Weymouth, physician; wife Deborah; sons James Gorham Torrey and Reuben Torrey. Two sons and five daughters, James Gorham Torrey, Reuben Torrey, Sallie Bates, wife of Elijah Bates, Susan Merritt, wife of Amos Merritt, Nancy V. (single) Lucinda Blanchard, wife of Edward Blanchard and Lavinia Burrell, wife of Reuben Burrell." The executor was James Gorham Torrey and the witnesses Eliphalet Loud, Benjamin Dubey and Noah Torrey.

13151, JAMES TORREY, first wife ESTHER SOUTHWICK. She was dau. of Joseph from Danvers, Mass.

Second wife JUDITH HANSON, m. July 19, 1779 in Dover, N. H. She was dau. of Solomon and Anne (Varney), from Dover.

13171, WILLIAM TORREY, wife MARY GILLIT.

WILLIAM TORREY was a sea-captain from Lebanon, Connecticut; he died at Hispaniola, apparently on one of his voyages. His family inscriptions in the old cemetery at Lebanon read as follows:

"In the Memory of Mr. William Torrey, who died at ye Hisponala in ye West Indies, October 11, 1783 in ye 37th year of his age / "No Plants in Nature's Garden Spring / Can heel or suage Death's deadly sting /"

"In Memory of Miss Clarissa Torrey, daughter of Mr. William and Mrs. Mary, his wife, who departed this life Feb. 25, 1797 in the 21st year of her age." "Here lies the body of Dyer, son of Mr. William and Mary Torrey, who died Aug.

27, 1783 in his 12th year." "In Memory of Mrs. Mary, wife of Mr. William Torrey, who died September 30, 1825, aged 78. (The Town Clerk says both "ae 70" and "ae 78" are found in the records; probably 70 is correct and the grave record was defaced to 78.) "Inscribed to the Memory of Mr. William Torrey who died June 3, 1805, aged 26 years and 24 days. The only son of his mother and she was a widow." Another record conflicts with the above — that Mary Torrey died on the 30th day of September A.D., 1825 aged 70 years. "Attested Abel Goodwin, Adm."

13173, JOHN TORREY, wife ABIGAIL RICHARDSON.

JOHN TORREY was a private in the Revolutionary War, serving at the Battle of Bunker Hill and carrying a wounded comrade from the field, according to his Pension Record.

JAMES TORREY has the following deed of record: "Feb. 14, 1795, James Torrey of Hanover, Mass., housewright, to Melzar Curtis of Hanover, all interest in lands and buildings that my father, Jesse Torrey, late of Hanover, deceased, left. Lydia Torrey, wife of James Torrey, also signs."

21343, NATHANIEL TORREY, wife LUCY ROOT.

NATHANIEL TORREY has the following deed of record: "Nathaniel Torrey of Pittsfield, Mass., Co. Berkshire, yeoman, for $650. to Joseph Tubbs of Pembroke, yeoman, farm in Hanover, Mass. which my honored father, Jesse Torrey, late of said Hanover, died seized of. Signed: Nathaniel Torrey, Lucy Torrey." The following from the probate records at Plymouth, Mass. are important in establishing connections: "Whereas it has been represented to me that the real estate whereof Jesse Torrey late of Hanover, yeoman, deceased died seized cannot admit of division among all children  and Nathaniel Torrey, one of the sons of the deceased, consenting to have said estate settled upon him, he paying to other children  their proportional parts after deducting &." "Know all men by these presents that we, Nathaniel Torrey of Pittsfield, in the county of Berkshire, Yeoman and William Stockbridge of Hanover, in the county of Plymouth, yeoman, are holden and stand firmly bound unto Joshua Thomas, Esq. Judge for the Probate of Wills to the amount of $1200. Sealed with our seals and dated the third day of June in ye year 1799. The condition of the above obligation is such that if the said Nathaniel Torrey shall pay to the heirs of the estate of Jesse Torrey late of said Hanover yeoman, deceased, their respective shares of the real estate of said Jesse deceased, (assigned to said Nathaniel Torrey agreeable to a decree of the judge of probate for said county of equal date with these presents then this obligation to be void.)"

I am quite sure that I have Jacob Gleason Torrey rightly placed. Verbal statement of an old lady whose wonderful memory proved correct in all other particulars told me that "Gleason Torrey of New York State was son of a brother of Mary 2134C".

2134B, HANNAH TORREY, second husband CALEB ROGERS. He was son of Caleb and Mary (Harlow).

21411, STEPHEN TORREY, wife SARAH ————.

STEPHEN TORREY has the following deed of record: "July 21, 1780, Stephen Torrey of Hanover, Mass., junior, cordwinder, to Benjamin White, Jr., of Hanover, yeoman, land and dwelling in Hanover. Sarah, wife of Stephen Torrey, junior, relinquishes dower." Stephen Torrey, aged 44 of Hanover enlisted in 1777. I believe him to be the same Stephen who, as sergeant, is named in a return of Capt. Amos Turner's company in Brig. Gen. John Thomas' regiment in 1775 and who, as sergeant in Capt. Nathaniel Winslow's company in Col. Josiah Whitney's regiment enlisted May 15, 1776. He was also on Feb. 12 of that year in Winslow's company in Col. Simeon Cary's regiment.

21511, SERGEANT SAMUEL TORREY, first wife MRS. SABRA HERRICK.

SAMUEL TORREY has the following conveyance of record: "Mar. 21, 1791, Samuel Torrey, of Orwell, Vt., and wife Sabara transfer to Elihu Gridley of Kinderhook, N. Y. lot 59." He was sergeant April 16, 1776 in Capt. Parmlee's company in Col. Elmore's regiment. He was with Ethan Allen at the capture of Ticonderoga and was made prisoner at Quebec and fought at Bennington and Yorktown. His pension record says that he enlisted Aug. 20, 1775 in Bennington, Vt., in a company commanded by Capt. Waitt Hopkins in Col. Seth Warner's regiment for five months. He marched to Canada and was at the taking of St. Johns and Montreal. He then enlisted Nov. 15, 1775 in Capt. Jeremiah Parmlee's regiment in Col. Samuel Elmore's regiment, and finally enlisted in Col. Moses Hazen's regiment until the close of the war. He was sergeant for six years and two months.

123221, JOHN TORREY, name changed to JOHN TORREYSON, wife ANN REID, m. about 1793 at Baltimore, Md. He was b. Jan. 4, 1757 at Boston, Mass. and d. about 1828 in Loudon Co., Va. Lived in Baltimore and in Langley, Va.; iron founder. She d. Aug. 29, 1843 near Leesburg, Loudon Co., Va.; sister of Rev. Nelson Reid.

JOHN TORREYSON, as he chose to be called, had an eventful career and was the ancestor of a large number of Torreysons who are distributed all over the United States. His identity with John Torrey 123221 is established by a combination of apparently irrefutable arguments. The story has persisted among several branches of his descendants that he came originally from Boston and that his change of name was largely caused by the fact that a near relative of the same name was a British sympathizer. A cousin, John Torrey 123231 (page 152, Vol. One) shows facts which will accord with this. Family traditions also agree that his father's name was John, and the only John, Jr. "of Boston" was 123221. Boston records say, "Torrey, John, 78, of Boston, hatter, died at Woodstock, Conn., Oct. 26, 1806," undoubtedly at the home of his son Samuel. Several other traditions confirm the identification. The oldest living descendant, Mrs. John Carley, gives the following recollections of the stories current in her earlier years: "John Torrey was a boy living in Boston at the time of the Boston Tea Party and was among the crowd of men and boys that stoned the chests as they were being landed. He was caught, and when questioned gave his name as 'Torreyson' " (perhaps "John Torrey's son" F. C. T.). "When the war broke out he was only sixteen years of age and he ran away from home to enlist in the Continental Army." (Here we have a slight chronological discrepancy doubtless due to vagueness in verbal tradition. When Washington took command of the Continental Army in 1775 John 123221 was eighteen years of age, which may have been changed to "sixteen" in the family tradition, or John may have enlisted earlier among the Minute Men instead of the "Continental Army." It is most interesting, in this connection to note in the Massachusetts archives that "June 6, 1776 John Torrey, Jr. was second lieutenant in the first regiment, fourth company from Essex County," and that there is no other "John Torrey, Jr." besides our Boston friend who can be eligible for this post. I can find no discharge and no later record. F. C. T.). "Because of his youth this enlistment displeased his father who at once took steps to have him released. While this action was pending young John, hearing of what his father was trying to do, decided that if he could not stay in the army he would not stay at home, so he ran away and went west as far as the Ohio River. It is said that he built the first log cabin on the site of the city of Marietta, Ohio. John decided to stay there and engage in trapping, and in the spring he and his companions had so many pelts that they made a raft and floated them down to some trading post to sell. He finally turned up in Baltimore, Md., his trip there being filled with thrilling incidents. By this time he was frightened lest the army officers put him down as a deserter so he decided to use the name "Torreyson." Just when and where and how he made the change is not a matter of record. In Baltimore he met and married Ann Reid at the home of her brother, Rev. Nelson Reid, a local clergyman of a very prominent family. Later they removed to her old home at Langley, Va., near Washington. He went in business with a man who operated an iron foundry and other shops in the direction of Baltimore on what was then known as the 'B. and O. Turnpike'. They made cannon and other implements of war and at one time entertained Gen. Washington for two days at their place. His residence in Baltimore must have continued for several years before his removal to Virginia, most of his children having been born there. His last two children came along ten years later in Virginia. When Washington was captured and burned by the British in the War of 1812 he had three good sized sons and they, with men of the iron works went into Washington when they heard the news." (John's service in the War of 1812 shows that he served for one month and fifteen days beginning Sept. 4, 1814 as private in Capt. Daniel Schwarzauer's Company of Infantry in the 27th Regiment of Long's Maryland Militia, for which service he received $11.84. His residence is given as Baltimore, Maryland, and his discharge took place there. A John Torrey, first sergeant, appears on an undated Return and Roll of Men recruited since the first of February under the Recruiting Acts of the State of Maryland for the Revolutionary War. As we know of no Torreys in Maryland at that time, this might be a service of our friend before he made his final change of name.) "He died in Loudon Co., Va., somewhere around 1828-30. He went to West Virginia and brought back the body of his eldest son, John, and buried him at Unison, Va. in August, 1824 and he did not live many years after that. His wife Ann lived in Leesburg Va. until her death in August, 1843 supported by her two wealthy brothers, Rev. Nelson and Robert Reid and by her sons. The eldest son was educated in Baltimore by his uncle, and the younger daughters conducted a school for young ladies in Leesburg. After he settled down in Baltimore he became very much ashamed of having run away both from his father's house and from the army and he tried in every way to make amends for these lapses from duty". Mrs. Carley cannot tell whether he had his name legally changed before his arrival in Baltimore or later.

21511C, OLIVE TORREY, husband LUTHER GROVER.

She was b. Oct. 11, 1808 at Sudbury, Vt., (according to Vermont State Records).

21514U, DAVID TORREY;— V, SIMEON;— W, REUBEN;— X, ABNER;— 6, JONAS;— Z, JOHN A. This set of brothers have been my most exasperating puzzle. Their father, Abner Torrey 2154 removed to Sodus, Wayne Co., N. Y. "from the west side of Lake Champlain" and he died in Sodus. Of his sons, David and Reuben and Simeon also lived in Sodus. I personally visited Sodus some years ago and found no one who could give me information. Have searched the Wayne County wills and deeds and cemeteries and the Sodus census of 1810, 1830 and 1850, and find no trace of Abner (who seems to have stayed at Plattsburgh), nor of Jonas nor of John A.†

21514U, DAVID TORREY, wife [LUCY] ————. He was b. 1780-90 and his wife was b. 1790-1800. (Census). Austin Torrey (b. 1828) is the only one of the Wayne Co.

† Incidentally I found the following unconnected Torreys in Wayne Co.: Elijah, wife Cynthia in Galen, 1846. Samuel in Ovid, 1810. Nathan, wife Margaret, in Sodus, 1828.

line for whom I have descendants. His mother was Lucy, and she was listed, with son Hiram in the 1850 Census and therefore was a widow, born 1796 according to her age in 1850. She is not named in Census of 1830 and so, if residing in Sodus, her husband must have been alive, as her son Hiram was b. 1836. In the 1830 Census only two Torreys had in the family "female aged 30 to 40" namely Nathan (wife Margaret) and David. In that year David had a family of three sons and four daughters at Sodus, and I have therefore assigned Lucy to be his wife. Also Austin, whom I tentatively placed as son of Jonas 21514Y in Vol. One I am now listing as the "son of David, aged under five years" in 1830. I feel that this is reasonably probable.

CHILDREN: 21514UA, Dau. b. 1810-15. B, Dau. b. 1815-20. C, Dau. b. 1820-25. 1, Son, b. 1820-25. 2, Son, b. 1820-25. D, Dau. b. 1825-30. 3, Austin, b. 1826; see later.* 4, Hiram, b. 1836. (Either 1 or 2 prob. is 21524UX, Abner.*)

21514V, SIMEON TORREY, wife ABIGAIL BANCROFT. A Simeon Torrey with wife and two daughters and a son, whose approximate ages agree with those of 21514V in Vol. One is in the 1830 Census with residence Sodus. A Simeon Torrey with wife Patty bought land in Lyons, Wayne Co., N. Y. in 1840 and may have been 21514V with a second wife, or may have been his son, or perhaps a son of Simeon's brother David, named after him.

21514W, REUBEN TORREY, wife [LEVINA].

A Reuben Torrey b. 1780-90 and wife b. 1780-90 and dau. b. 1815-20 and son b. 1825-30 are listed in Census of 1830 at Sodus, N. Y. and are undoubtedly 21514W (though his birth date in Vol. One does not agree). A Reuben Torrey with wife Levina buys land in Sodus 1827 and this probably shows his wife's name.

21514Y, JONAS TORREY. I have no record of him. The son Austin, listed tentatively in Vol. One will be found under 21514U.

216121, JOSEPH TORREY, wife BETSEY TROWBRIDGE. She d. Jan. 1, 1884.

12411431, REV. CHARLES CUTLER TORREY, whose picture will be found on the next page, was great grandson of Rev. Manasseh Cutler, member of Congress, who was largely responsible for the earliest emigration to Ohio and for the "Ordinance of 1787" excluding slavery from the "Northwest Territory." When he was seven years of age his parents removed to Michigan but Charles was brought up in the family of his uncle, Prof. Joseph Torrey, 1241141, graduating in 1854 from the Theological Seminary at Andover, and was sent as a missionary to the Choctaw and Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma. During his six years there he completed the translation of the Bible into Cherokee, which had been begun by his predecessor, Dr. Samuel A. Worcester. The mission was given up when the Civil War began and he returned to New England where he served as pastor in several communities, his last pastorate extending beyond his seventy-ninth birthday. His later years were spent in Andover, Mass., where his two daughters and younger son were then living.

21511821, CLARENCE ALMON TORREY, genealogist, of Boston, Mass., to whose invaluable assistance in the collection of data for this volume I have already expressed my indebtedness, was born Aug. 28, 1869 at Manchester, Iowa. His father, Charles O. Torrey, removed when a young man from Vermont to Delaware Co., Iowa, where he resided at the outbreak of the Civil War, when he enlisted in Co. F, 27th Iowa Regiment and was soon advanced to the rank of sergeant. April 9, 1864 he was wounded at the Battle of Pleasant Hill, La. and was mustered out in 1865. Returning to his home near Manchester, Iowa, he engaged in business until 1894 when his health required his retirement. For many years he was a Trustee of Lenox College, at Hopkinton, Iowa. Clarence A. Torrey was for some time a school principal and later member of the staff of the University of Chicago Library. At present he is engaged in genealogical work in Boston. While in Iowa he won the

ARMS OF THE NOVA SCOTIA BRANCH

The Nova Scotia Branch

Written by Dr. Henry M. Tory, (NS)342

The immigrant Ancestor of the Nova Scotia Torys was James Tory who came from Aberdeen, Scotland and settled in Nova Scotia in 1783.

The name in Scotland as in England is variously spelled, Tory, Torry, Torrey, Torrie and Torey. The official documents in which the name of James Tory appears give two spellings, Tory and Torry. A town in Scotland, a suburb of Aberdeen, which bears the name is spelled in Scotland, Torry.

Two branches of the family were established in Great Britain during the Plantagenet period of British history, one in Yorkshire in the north of England and one in Elginshire, Scotland. The records show the Yorkshire branch as in possession of lands as early as the middle of the 13th century. At a not much later date the Scottish family appears on the scene in the person of Adam Tory Provost of Elginshire. The provostship of Elginshire appears for a time to have been hereditary in the family.

That the Elginshire family was of some consequence at that time is shown by the fact that when James I, King of Scotland, having been held a prisoner at the English Court, was redeemed from nineteen years of exile by the payment of one hundred thousand pounds, Adam Tory was deputed with a score of other sons of Scotland whose names are not mentioned, to carry the money to England and to bring the King back to his native heath. As late as 1910 a portion of the original lands was still in the possession of this family.

While the records available do not definitely establish the fact, it would appear that the North Country family was the parent family, and that the other branches found in various parts of England are off-shoots of the parent stock. For example, there is a large family settled in Dorsetshire with some members in Devon and Somerset. This family, which spells the name Tory, has complete family records since early in the seventeenth century. The records show that at the time the records begin one Netham Tory was engaged in the shipping business between Aberdeen in Scotland and Poole in the south of England.

There is good reason to believe that this family is of Scottish Ancestry. The family names are identical with those current in the Tory family in Scotland, and with those common in the Nova Scotia branch. James, John, William, Robert, George, Henry, Alexander, Clement, David repeat continuously in England, Scotland, and Nova Scotia.

Religiously the Torys of Scotland took the Protestant side in Reformation days as apparently did their English brethren. The Scottish Torys in the main became Presbyterian, the English, Independents or Church of England, the American branch of the family being descended from the Independents. The Dorset family are Evangelical churchmen, generally.

One branch of the Scottish family, that from which the Nova Scotia branch is descended, remained Episcopalian. That in Scotland meant High Church in the Anglican sense. Bishop Patrick Tory, a nephew of the James who settled in Nova Scotia, was the last non-juring bishop of Scotland. He died in 1852. His son was professor of theology in a Scottish Episcopalian College in Scotland.

The father of James Tory, also named James, was a follower of Charles Stuart in the contest for the crown of England against the present Royal Family. He joined the rebellion in 1745. After the defeat of the Scottish army at Colloden (1745) he was a fugitive until the amnesty was declared in 1749. In the records, completed after the rebellion, of those who took up arms for Prince Charlie, he, with others, is described as "loitering," which meant that he had not been captured and shot as were many of the defeated Scots.

James Tory, the immigrant Ancestor of the Nova Scotia branch, was born in Aberdeen between 1750 and 1760. The date has not been definitely fixed. Like many of the descendants of the followers of Prince Charlie, he enlisted in the 71st Scottish regiment and was sent to America to fight on the British side in the Revolutionary War. At the end of the war James Tory, with others of his regiment, was a prisoner of war in New York. It is not clear whether or not he returned to Scotland. In any case he was honourably discharged from the army and was given a grant of land in Nova Scotia,—a Province which has always been dear to the heart of the Scot.

Guysborough at the head of Chedabucto Bay had been an important fortification for the protection of the fisheries during the days of the French possession. The old fort, the ruins of which still exist, overlooked the bay. A small settlement in what is now the county of Guysboro had been made by immigrants from the American Colonies between 1760 and 1770. Two important rivers enter the bay at its head, Salmon River, a non-navigable stream and the Milford Haven, a tidal river with a beautiful harbor, and navigable for the ships of that time for ten miles inland. The town and fort are situated at the mouth of this river. The valleys of these two rivers and the shores of the bay offered a suitable field for settlement. There the United Empire loyalists and the disbanded soldiers were settled.

James Tory received a grant of land for a farm along with certain town lots. The original maps are available in the County records. He elected to settle on land in what has since been known as Guysboro Intervale above the head waters of the Milford Haven River. The homestead was occupied successively by his son James, his grandson William, and his great grandson William. It remained in the family until 1900 but has now passed out of their possession. His wife Christina Kirk, a native of Sterling, Scotland, followed him to Nova Scotia. There is still a tradition in the countryside of the fine qualities of these two people, especially of Mrs. Tory. She became a centre of influence and support to the new settlement.

THE OLD CHURCH, GUYSBORO INTERVALE, N. S.

Naturally in such a scheme of settlement the Protestant settlers grouped together. The associated names in the district were:- Ferguson, McKenzie, Aikens, Cunningham, McKay, Leet, Gillies, McDonald. The descendants of these original families are scattered over North America. Some of the first houses still stand. These names will be found closely associated by marriage with the Tory family.

There is a tradition in the family that a brother of James Tory, John by name, settled in the United States. My grandfather, who died in 1881, told me such was the case.

It would not be surprising, if a complete record were available, to find that he was the ancestor of the North Carolina family. Of the names of the six children of John Torrey of North Carolina five are common in the Nova Scotia branch, namely, George, David, James, Betsey and Mary. There is also a tradition of another member of the family having settled in New Brunswick. This family however moved over into the United States long ago and have been lost track of completely. Forty years ago a descendant of this family was still living in Moncton.

There is also in Ontario a family which spells its name Torrie. They came to Canada only a generation ago and are not descended from the early pioneers. Some of this family are known to me personally. They have also a tradition of having had an ancestor, James, who followed Prince Charlie. As the records of 1745 only shows the name of one Tory in rebellion, the Ontario family would appear to be descended from the same James Tory as the members of the Nova Scotia branch.

HENRY TORY left the old homestead and moved to Clam Harbor (now Port Shoreham), Guysboro County, on his marriage in 1816. He took up a large area of land, sufficient later to divide with his sons. He occupied the place until his death in 1881. The homestead portion of his lands passed to his son Robert. The place is now in possession of his great grandson William Hart, descendant through his daughter Elizabeth. He prospered and left a considerable property. He left the Church of England and became a Congregationalist, of which denomination he was an ardent supporter all his life. His home was the centre of religious influence in the community. Before the building of a church, the religious services in the community were held in his house.

During the War of 1812 he joined the militia and like his brother James was stationed at Fort Point. He was an ardent patriot.

The New York Branch

The origin of the New York Branch of the Torrey family is shrouded in the mists of a comparatively recent antiquity. All that the most intensive research has so far accomplished is to reveal that one James Torrey married in New York City an Elizabeth Peach who died in New York City of yellow fever. They had a son James and a daughter Elizabeth or Betsey who married [Peleg] Smith. James Senior then married a Catherine Niver and they removed to Hopewell, Orange Co., New York where they had ten children, as shown.

The Introduction to the Nova Scotia Branch in this book names a John, brother to the Nova Scotia progenitor James, who is rumored to have settled in the United States, and he may have been the ancestor of the New York Branch, father of James. Also in Volume One in the Introduction to the North Carolina Branch is noted a rumor that the progenitors first went to New York and one of them staid there. It is, however, just as possible that James, the first of the New York Branch may have dropped into New York City "on his own." There is no evidence to connect him with the Main Branch.‡

‡ A James Torrey of New York City, who was born about 1795, married Dec. 16, 1818 Elizabeth Brill. He had stepbrother David and brother Thomas, and sisters Matilda, Jane and Maria. His father was John Torrey who married first Feb. 28, 1787 in New York Margaret McArthur or (McEnthune) with above son David, and second Margaret McCulloch or (McCullen). I have descendants of this Branch and they will be found in Appendix to the New York Branch, but they are noted here as possibly in some way connected with the above family.

The following Torreys, seemingly originating and living in and around New York City have been either unable or unwilling to give me any assistance in connecting them with others of the name.

John Torrey married June 7, 1766 at New York, Elizabeth Vandle, dau. of John and Catherine (Kipp). It was probably their son John who married in New York Feb. 28, 1787 Margaret McArthur or McEnthune (other notes say "Margaret McCullough" and "Mary McCullen"). It seems that there were two wives, which may account for the above variations of name. By the first wife he had one son, 11 David, b. Aug. 1, 1788. By second wife he had 12 James b. 1795; 13 Thomas b. Dec., 1811; 1A Matilda m. John Loeb; 1B Jane m. John Burns; 1C Maria perh. m. Halstead. David 11 m. June 9, 1815 Temperance P. Hawkins and had ch. 11A Catherine m. June 19, 1838 Philemon Farley; 111 Richard; 11B Julia m. Dr. Robert Perry; 112 Cornelius m. Patience Miller; 113 Alexander b. abt. 1821, d. Feb. 9, 1859. James 12 d. abt. July 3, 1862 and m. Dec. 16, 1818 Elizabeth Brill and had ch. 121 Christopher; 122 Allen; 12A Amelia; 12B Lydia m. William Flandreau; 123 John; 124 Thomas. Thomas 13 m. June 16, 1839 Caroline Parmlee who was b. abt. 1822 and d. July 22, 1908 and had ch. 131 Thomas b. Feb. 5, 1840, m. Katie Houston; 13A Mary A. b. June 24, 1842; 132 William Allen b. May 1, 1844, m. Rose McComsky; 133 Charles E. b. Feb. 15, 1848, m. Margaret Schoberth; 134 George B. b. Mar. 16, 1850; 13B Emma M. b. Apr. 7, 1853, m. Charles H. Myers.

The following disconnected Torreys also appear on early records of New York City. John m. Oct. 17, 1759 Widow Jennet Delaney. Catherine m. Nov. 5, 1763 Luke Devan. Mary m. Sept. 1, 1771 Adam Elsevine. James m. June 7, 1766 Elizabeth Van Embrie (but see the first John above). James was bapt. Jan. 14, 1770, son of James Torrey and Elizabeth Wendel (but see also the first John above).

Torrey's In Military Service

I have copied all records of the United States at Washington covering military service in the Revolution, the War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Indian Wars and the Civil War. The following is the simple index for the above, numbered for ease of reference. Lack of space prevents further amplification.

In Volume One will be found all pensioners of the Revolution and War of 1812, while in this volume, immediately following the War Records, is a complete list of United States Torrey pensioners for the Mexican, Indian and Civil Wars.

The total number of pensions on file at Washington at the date of my visit was 7,097,233.

A Dip Into My Letter Box

Time, space, and expense combined to preclude me from publishing any of the interesting biographical and historical information which has accumulated in my files,— mainly in the file of letters received from the 846 different Torrey descendants referred to in the Introduction. While the body of this book is on the press I am adding this very brief digest of some of this material. It is listed in the order of the Reference Numbers, for convenience of identification and is not indexed.

1221312A Jane Robertson Torrey is featured in the following article taken verbatim from L. Bamberger's monthly publication "Charming" under the caption "The last of the Albinelas." "Romance, like genius, is where you find it; and a casual passerby, in search of holiday greens last month, found it on a little wooded hill in Stirling. Beneath murmuring pine trees, grown so close that even at high noon it is twilight there, the passerby came upon a tombstone which bore this very simple but very eloquent epitaph: 'The Marquis Giovanni Albinela; Born In Virgil, Italy, 1808; Died In New York, 1883.' A search of yellowing records, supplemented by old wives' reminiscences, brought to light the romance of an Italian nobleman and a lovely American girl. The youthful Marquis, after suffering imprisonment and persecution for his political activities in Italy, fled to America, where he made the acquaintance of Dr. John Torrey, the famous naturalist, who at length adopted him. The Torrey summer home at Stirling then became the scene of a courtship, for the Marquis fell in love with the beautiful daughter of the house. From Italy presently came word that the fortunes and estates had been restored to the young Marquis, last of the Albinelas. With his hand he could now offer his title and his estates. He had charmed the old Doctor, but the daughter, for reasons which never can be known, preferred to remain merely his devoted sister by adoption. Neither of the pair ever married; and the Marquis, at his death, bequeathed his entire fortune to the American spinster he had wooed and lost. The Torrey summer home, that had sheltered him in life provided him with his last resting place. And today with four generations of Torreys, he sleeps in the dim graveyard beneath those pines at Stirling."

1221313 William Torrey, his sons William A. Torrey, John Torrey and Samuel W. Torrey, and his grandson Frederic C. Torrey have identified themselves with the development of Lakehurst (formerly Manchester), New Jersey, which has come into national prominence through the location there of the United States Air Station with its famous hangar housing the Shenandoah, the Los Angeles, and the Graf Zeppelin. A brief history of this development may be of interest. William Torrey was born May 6, 1797 in New York City, presumably in one of the two houses on the west side of Broadway between Leonard St. and Franklin St. owned by his grandmother Mary (Thompson) Nichols, which houses were sold by her in 1808 to Contoit for $10,000 paid in silver, and brought on a cart to the house. His father, Lieut. William Torrey came to live in 1790 with General Hazen (under whom he had served in the Revolution) in the house next door to the Nichols, and so became acquainted with the daughter, Margaret Nichols, whom he married in 1793, and the above William Torrey was their third child. April 18, 1821 William Torrey married Adeline Whittemore, daughter of Samuel Whittemore, a merchant and president of the Greenwich Bank. For her wedding present Adeline's father turned over to her a mortgage upon a mile square tract of land in the undeveloped and almost inaccessible region centering in what is now Lakehurst, New Jersey, and after a short residence in Fishkill, New York, and in Brooklyn, William Torrey devoted most of his life to the financing and developing of this Manchester tract. To reach this point, in those days, it was necessary to take train to Freehold and drive from there to Manchester. William Torrey went extensively into the production of charcoal, then a valuable commodity, and he built a wooden railroad (with strap iron top to the rails) from Manchester to Toms River, whence the charcoal and timber was sent to New York by vessels. The cars were drawn by mules. In 1841 when William first went to Manchester, his son, William A. Torrey, aged fourteen, was clerking in a New York business house and two years later he prepared for college and entered the sophomore class at the New York University. His father William was then engaged in the erection of London Terrace, between 23rd St. and 24th St. and between 9th and 10th Aves. in New York, but in the following year, through business reverses William Torrey returned to Manchester and his son William A. left college and returned to business. In 1856 William Torrey was joined by his sons Samuel, William A. and John in preparations for the ambitious proposition of building a railroad from Port Monmouth on Raritan bay (with steamer connections from New York) to the Delaware River opposite Lewes, Del. and thence along the Maryland and Virginia peninsulas to Cape Charles with a ferry to Cape Henry and thence by rail to Norfolk. Securing with difficulty a charter from the State Legislature, with a cash capital of but $1,500, and after most interesting vicissitudes, they succeeded in their project through Lakewood and Manchester as far as Atco, from which point there was rail connection with Philadelphia. William Torrey and his sons Samuel and John handled the financing while William A. had charge of the actual work of construction. Practically all of the present Borough of Lakehurst stood originally in the name of Adeline Torrey, wife of William. In 1895 the village property then unsold came into the hands of William A. Torrey who, with the aid of his brother-in-law, Mr. D. T. Warren, his nephew Mr. R. H. Warren, and Mr. A. A. LeRoy, proprietor of the Pine Tree Inn, devoted the remainder of his life to its improvement, securing the location of a large Inn and a new church and the earliest winter cottages. The property being heavily mortgaged, however, his son, Frederic C. Torrey, then principal of a system of public schools at Milburn, N. J. abandoned this position and devoted fifteen years to Lakehurst development, succeeding in wiping out the very large mortgage and placing the whole on a sound financial basis. It is interesting to note that at the time when the Los Angeles first came across from abroad a large map of the world on the first page of the New York papers contained the names of but three towns in North America,— New York, Lakehurst, and Philadelphia.

12233135 Col. John D. Torrey was born on a farm at Armada, Mich. At the age of nineteen he worked as a painter and bridge constructor. In 1895 he became a life insurance salesman with the Mutual Life Ins. Co. and in ten years was appointed Manager of that company in Nashville, Tenn. In 1910 he was appointed Colonel on the staff of Gov. Hooper and later received the same appointment on the staff of Gov. Taylor. He married as his second wife the daughter of the Minister of Education in President Carranza's cabinet in Mexico.

1223519 Rev. David Torrey graduated from Amherst in '43 and from Union Theological Seminary in '46, and was for a short time a tutor at Amherst. His first pastorate was at Delhi, N. Y. and then for fourteen years he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Ithaca, N. Y. In the spring of '61 he and another were sent by citizens of Ithaca with supplies for the soldiers and on the morning after Bull Run a farmer awoke them with the news that the Union retreat had left them between the lines. They barely had time to escape. He later ministered to the wounded and dying and in the carnage after Fredericksburg he assisted in caring for those who were mangled in the battle. For two years he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Ann Arbor, Mich. and then spent two years in travel abroad in the Holy Land. His last pastorate was that of the Presbyterian Church at Cazenovia, N. Y.

12323 Capt. William Torrey, the British sympathizer whose entry appears on page 152 of Volume One, has come to light. A letter just received from Capt. James F. Leys, U. S. N., encloses extracts from two letters of a Miss Eliza Thurston of Basseterre, St. Kitts. Though this volume is already in press I have deemed the matter of sufficient moment to add the following extracts from her extracts. "I have in my possession three very old paintings which I would like to dispose of. Two of them are in old, gilt, oval shaped frames, and were painted in London in 1797. One is the painting of a lady, wife of a friend of the other two, but no name is attached. The other two are of a Torrey father and son. That of the father bears on the back a paper reading, 'William Torrey, Sen'r, born in Boston, Mass., America, 1730. Came to St. Kitts, 1800. Exchanged worlds 1803. Portrait drawn in London 1797.' The paper on the picture of the son reads, 'William Torrey, Junr. Born 24th of Janry, 1767. Married 2nd May, 1795. Exchanged worlds July 2, 1804. Portrait taken in London in 1797. Place of birth, Portsmouth, New Hampshire, America.' The son must have married some ancestor of mine. My uncle, old Dr. Thurston, had his name William Torrey. William Torrey, Jr. died in St. Kitts in 1804 and is buried in our vault in St. George's Churchyard."

124114112 Prof. Charles Cutler Torrey is head of the department of Semitic Languages at Yale, and collaborated with Dr. Charles Foster Kent in the production of "The Shorter Bible" (1918, Charles Scribner's Sons). He graduated from the Andover Theological Seminary, has traveled extensively and had charge of the School of Research at Jerusalem.

124114311 Daniel Temple Torrey graduated from the Vermont University, taught for some years and then studied theology at Andover Seminary. He preached at Lyndeboro, N. H. and later in the Harvard St. Church at Dorchester and at Edgewood, R. I. His health failing somewhat he went with the Provident Life and Trust Co. where he is head of the Providence office. His son, George Safford Torrey, is head of the botanical dept. of the State Agricultural College at Storrs, Conn. His daughter Marian Marsh Torrey is Associate Professor of Mathematics at Goucher College, Baltimore. Another daughter, Katherine Adelaide, is teacher of French language, literature and dramatics at the Beaver Country Day School in Brookline, Mass.

12411444 Dr. Samuel W. Torrey, for fifty years a practising physician at Beverly, Mass. was graduated from the University of Vermont in '65 and from the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York City in '68. He opened a private hospital in Beverly which, later, he presented to a corporation for the use and benefit of the public in that vicinity, winning the lasting gratitude and affection of his fellow townsmen.

124134BD Almira (Torrey Blake) Fenno-Gendrot has already been written about, with portrait, in the Introduction to Volume One. In her later years she published a little booklet entitled, "Artists I have known" which is very entertaining. Before her death the extensive gallery of paintings and pictures which she and her husband had collected were distributed to various galleries and institutions in and around Boston. Upon receipt of my picture, many years ago, she wrote me, "A live visualized Torrey is worth a whole cemetery full laid in rows under their headstones."

124137 Dr. Augustus Torrey was a practising physician of Providence, R. I. He was educated at Dartmouth College and was in the same class with Daniel Webster who was his warm friend. Among the heirlooms in possession of his granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Metcalf are six beautiful tablespoons of coin silver which were a part of her grandmother's wedding presents and also a silver tray on which wine was served at their wedding. She also has a silver medal of her grandfather's Greek fraternity, which was evidently worn at that time instead of a pin, and also a charming little pewter writing box 5 x 7 inches in size and standing 2 inches high on queer little legs. The lid lifts up, folding together in the center, and one side is divided into three parts while the other contains the sand box which was used in place of blotting paper. I have also copy of a memorial tribute from the appelate division of the New York Supreme Court of the Fourth Division at Rochester, signed by one hundred members of the Erie County bar drawn up at his death, to the memory of Miss Metcalf's brother, Judge Henry Metcalf who was for many years upon the bench in that county.

124151111 Charles L. Torrey was a prominent lawyer of Putnam, Conn. and the acknowledged leader of the bar in his county. In nearly every court action of importance in the county for a quarter of a century he appeared as counsel and most of the young lawyers of that region read law with him in preparation for admission to the bar. He graduated from Yale in '87 and in 1907 was member of the State Legislature, serving on the Judiciary Committee.

12416CB Rosa Frances Peckham who married George W. Danielson, formerly editor of the Providence Journal, was an artist and her portraits were accepted and exhibited by the Paris Salon for several years. Her sister Ella married Charles C. Baldwin who was editor and proprietor of the Worcester (Mass.) Spy. A brother, Fenner Peckham was a physician in partnership with his father, and a sister Grace married Judge Charles H. Murray, of the New York Court of Claims. She was also at one time a prominent New York physician.

1255 William Torrey married Mehitable Crane, and there is a very interesting tradition about their marriage. The ceremony took place in her home in Berkley, Mass. and after the ceremony her husband put her on a pillion behind him on horseback, strapped the little brass-bound, calf-skin covered trunk containing her trousseau on one side of the pillion and they started on their honeymoon back to Weymouth, following the old Indian trail and spending one night on the journey.

13151341 Frederic Cheever Torrey is a member of the art firm of Vickery, Atkins and Torrey of San Francisco. He has an interesting monograph on the Art of Etching published and has traveled extensively in Europe in the interests of his firm and of his country-wide clientele.

13151343 Prof. Harry Beals Torrey, formerly professor of biology in the University of Oregon, is now professor at Stanford University. His wife, Grace (Crabbe) Torrey has had a number of her short stories published in the Saturday Evening Post and other magazines. When a student at the University of California he made an excellent record for himself and his university as an athlete (hurdler) when his team made a trip throughout the east.

1315136 Paschal Edward Torrey, until he retired, was in the grocery business in Boston,— at one time with his brother James Morrell Torrey on State Street, and later with the wholesale grocery house of John A. Andrew & Co. which afterwards became Haskell & Adams.

13173212 Clark White Torrey, son of Asa Torrey whose picture is on page 97 of this book, was the first white child born in Flint, Mich.

13173214 James M. Torrey was the first police justice of the city of Flint, Mich., holding the position for sixteen years. He was admitted to the bar in 1879. For thirty years he acted as historian of the annual Torrey Reunions at Flint which formed the nucleus of the National Association of the Torrey Families, of which organization he was the first vice-president.

131741A Dr. Johannes Adam Simon Oertel in addition to being an Episcopalian clergyman of prominence is best known as a most wonderful painter of religious works. His world-wide fame rests largely on his well known painting "The Rock of Ages," which has been termed "the greatest religious picture," "the most popular American painting," &c. It has been copied in every possible way, — given away as premium on purchases of soap or of a cheap magazine,— used by churches to illustrate their pamphlets,— stamped on medals, and sold as a "picture postal" for a penny,— and through it all, by a strange fatality, the name of its author has seldom if ever appeared. It is well known to all, depicting a rugged granite cross beaten about by storm and wave, and to it clings by both hands the beautiful figure of a young woman. Its history is interesting. The first sketch of the subject was made in the album of a Westerly lady in pencil. Next a small painting and then a painting 12 x 18 which was presented to Mrs. Rowse Babcock of Westerly, after which came a larger painting 26 x 49. This was sold the second day of exhibition to Mr. Augustus Storrs of Brooklyn. Dr. Oertel called the painting "Faith" and did not realize the importance of the design, but when it came before the public the popular heart was touched as it has not been by any modern painting, and he soon had offers to purchase the copyright and publish. George T. James of New York was selected as publisher and copies both in photograph and chromo were made and sold rapidly. When it was decided to publish Mr. Storrs was asked to loan his copy for the purpose of having necessary photographs made and upon his refusal Dr. Oertel painted another copy, 36 x 61 for the purpose. I may be mistaken, but I think that it is this copy which is in the Corcoran Art Gallery in Washington. It was originally bought by Mr. William Fogg, of New York. For some time the only editions produced and sold were those made in France and sold in London because the publisher paid no royalty on foreign productions but only on what were disposed of in this country. For some time copies could not be printed fast enough to supply the demand, and at last the greed of "pirate" dealers was aroused through the discovery of a "flaw" in the American copyright. Although living in Rhode Island, all Dr. Oertel's art business was done in New York, and he took out his copyright as of New York, while the law required that it must be taken out in the state of residence or in Washington. Cheap imitations then appeared and Dr. Oertel was obliged to institute three expensive lawsuits, paying the expenses from his quarter of the royalty while the publisher pocketed his three-fourths. The first two suits were decided in Dr. Oertel's favor but the final one went against him, and thereafter the product of his brains and hands became the property of anyone who chose to use it. Other copies were made by the author and the same fatality attended the largest and best,— a life size copy which was sent to an exhibition in Chicago. After the exhibition all pictures were returned except "The Rock of Ages" which was never heard of again and no trace of it or of the manager of the exhibition has ever been discovered in spite of every effort. Dr. Oertel produced some magnificent mural paintings and reredos for prominent churches as well as some military and other paintings. It will well repay the reader to read in some public library the book "A Vision Realized," — a life story of Dr. J. A. Oertel, written by his son J. F. Oertel, and beautifully illustrated with Dr. Oertel's paintings.

133115 Daniel Torrey learned the blacksmith trade when all hoes, hay forks, &c. were made by hand. At an early age he removed to Hancock County, Ill., establishing and running a plow factory,— the first in that state. About 1854 he went to Putnam Co., Missouri, where he bought 1000 acres of land and, with his five boys, was very prosperous until the opening of the Civil War. The five boys enlisted and all served until the end of the war except Daniel who was wounded and died at the battle of Shiloh. Dr. William Otis Torrey was army physician and surgeon and Roscoe Edwin Torrey was hospital steward and both were loved by the soldiers as kindhearted and painstaking. Many a soldier refused amputation until Dr. William O. had passed upon his case. Abner Wood Torrey was captain of an artillery company stationed in a pass in Lower California. Charles Pollock Torrey and his father Daniel were in the Home Guards. Elbert and Lewis Torrey, being too young to enlist, took turns guarding the home at night, placing a bell upon the wildest of the cattle each night and scaring them to make them wilder and turning them out into a big wood pasture. Lewis became a skilled machinist and also specialized in the raising and training of fast horses. In 1870 he was brought overland to California by his brother, Abner W. who had a large blacksmith shop in Marysville. Abner was city alderman and later was elected sheriff and practised law. He then engaged in the sheepraising business handling ten to fifteen thousand sheep at a time. Later he removed to Eureka where he was three times elected mayor and served as harbor master.

152213 Samuel Davenport Torrey went from Milbury to Boston and established himself in business at 24 South Market Street. He brought with him his youngest brother, George Washington Torrey who told how he swept out the store when the carpenters finished it and who worked for his brother and succeeded him, continuing the business under the name of George W. Torrey & Co. He was in this same store for over fifty-five years, taking into partnership with him his son, George W. Torrey, Jr. who, after his father's death, continued the business under the same name until his death. His widow sold the business to an outsider, but it is still run, I understand, under the name of George W. Torrey & Co. William Torrey, father of Samuel Davenport Torrey was noted for his great height,— six feet, six and a half inches according to his military record. His brother John Torrey was six feet, one inch in height. Benjamin Davenport Torrey, son of Samuel D. Torrey was also very large and strong, being six feet, five inches in height.

2111121 Ira Allen Torrey was a well to do farmer in Wisconsin. He enlisted in the army in 1846. His three sons, Wilder B. M. Torrey, Dr. Ira Allen Torrey and Return Delos Torrey all enlisted in the Civil War. Wilder turned a Yankee trick by wrapping the Union flag around his body next to the skin to save and conceal it and then leading fifteen Southern soldiers into the Union lines and taking them prisoners. Dr. Ira Allen Torrey was killed on the battlefield while attending the wounded. After the war Return D. Torrey was elected County Treasurer of Winnebago Co., Wis., and held the office for eight years, after which he was made secretary of the Great Northern State Fair held at Oshkosh, Wis. for thirteen years. He was for four years state senator and for two years was manager of the Milwaukee Exposition. At his death he was first assistant county treasurer of Cook Co., Ill. Edgar Return Torrey, grandson of Ira Allen Torrey wrote me, some time ago, "I am a grandson of a veteran, a son of one, I am one myself, and I am the father of three. Can you beat that?" (Competition solicited.)

211152 Luther Torrey was one of the pioneers in the settlement of Vermont, moving from Ware, Mass. in April, 1820. He settled in Stratton and kept an inn until the time of railroads and bridges. Stratton was, at that time, on the main stage road from Troy to Boston, it being impossible to cross the Connecticut River further south than Brattleboro. Here four-horse teams would come in from Troy piled high with dressed hogs,— change horses and away to Brattleboro on the way to Boston, returning loaded just as high with codfish. It was at this inn that Daniel Webster staid over night when he made his famous speech on Stratton Mt., July 4, 1840. There was not a railroad in the state and the population of Stratton was about 300 but the crowd on that day was estimated at over 15,000. It was this inn that warmed and comforted Mr. Harrison Blake and his daughter when the former was speechless with cold and only able by a wave of his hand to let the searchers know that there were others stalled in the snow behind him. His wife was dead, his daughter is mentioned in the poem, "He" (Luther Torrey) "moved the robe from off the child; the babe looked up and sweetly smiled." When railroads shifted the course of travel Luther Torrey built a saw mill and was a lumber dealer until his death. He was a scholar, having the reputation of being one of the best mathematicians in the state, and of being an able tutor in Latin.

2134331 Everell Francis Marion Torrey opened "for the reception of students on the last Wednesday of August, 1833" (according to the old printed circular, before me) the Charlotte Academy at Charlotte, Mich. Tuition for the term of 12 weeks ranged from $1 in phonography or bookkeeping, to $2 in the Primary Dept., $3 in the Lower English Branches, $4 in the Higher Branches and $5 in Latin, German and French. In a letter to his mother, dated Sept. 8, 1833, written on the back of this circular he speaks of himself as a lad lacking months of being 21 acting as the dignified Dean of the Faculty. He says that he has a pleasant school in a delightful place and expects, after paying expenses, to get well paid for his time. He advertises, by the way, that board could be obtained in private families for from $1 to $1.50. (Query,— per day, or per month? F. C. T.) In a letter dated Feb. 26, 1849 (not addressed to me, F. C. T.) written from Pittsfield, Ill. he gives an interesting account of his journey to that place which he also describes. "Cattle are raised in considerable quantity. New milch cows are worth from five to twelve dollars; working cattle are worth from $30 to $50 a yoke. I should like to have you step out here some Saturday (on account of my attending school) and we will shoulder a rifle or two, pocket the powder horn and bullets, and go for a hunt. First we will go out on the prairie,— perchance a deer may cross our path. If so we will do our best to send a little cold lead after him. If not we must be content with a few prairie chickens. We will then step into the woods and look out for a turkey or an opossum if good luck favor us and we will at least have a sufficient quantity of rabbits and quail to carry home,— or some squirrels if you prefer  The gold mines of California cause an immense excitement here. Many in good business have thrown it up and are preparing to start in the Spring. Most of them will go with wagons drawn by oxen,— 3 or 4 men to a wagon with 3 or 4 yoke of cattle and perhaps a couple of cows. It is only a short distance to California,— some 2000 miles,— but when it comes to be traveled at the rate of 18 miles a day it makes quite a little trip."

21511 Samuel Torrey removed with his parents from Leicester, Mass. to Rutland and afterwards to Brattleboro, Vt. He enlisted in the early days of the Revolutionary War and was with Ethan Allen at the famous capture of Ticonderoga. He then marched to Canada and was present at the taking of St. Johns and Montreal. By repeated re-enlistment he served throughout the war and his discharge, dated June 30, 1783 is signed by Gen. George Washington. He was a prisoner for six months in 1782, part of the time in a prison ship at Quebec, and then taken to Boston and exchanged. His capture occurred when he and eight others were acting as a guard to General Bailey at Johnson Village. Bailey had received a warning that the enemy would attempt his capture and, after warning his men, he crossed the river and escaped. The guard, however, seeing no signs of danger permitted themselves to be surprised at their evening meal and Sergeant Torrey despite the odds against them met the enemy at the door and raised his gun to fire, but it was knocked from his hand. Some of the party escaped and two were wounded.

2162122 Derastus Torrey at the time of his marriage was deprived of his inheritance through a legal irregularity but he and his brother Charles went to work in their characteristically earnest and industrious way and in a few years had a well stocked farm. Charles sold his share of the property to Derastus and bought the hotel in Centerville, nearby. After sixteen years of residence on the farm Derastus was asked to go to Wisconsin to manage the "Model Farm" and he accepted the offer, selling the old home. The Model Farm was a success under Torrey management and he soon acquired a property near, leaving his son Adelbert in his place. He then invested heavily in a mine in New Mexico which was afterward sold for a million dollars, but in the meantime by mismanagement the remote investors lost heavily, causing Derastus to dispose of his fine Wisconsin home. In 1888 he removed to California where his son Adelbert had been living and where he died.

241111215A Haddie Elizabeth Torrey, lyceum reader and entertainer, who married Rev. John Calvin Berger had done some journalistic work for "The Interior," a Presbyterian publication and has published a novel, "In the Days of the Sons of God." Her daughter Barbara who married James R. Kearny, was for a time an entertainer and a teacher of the violin.

24126231 Major Zerah Watkins Torrey (24 U. S. Infantry) graduated from West Point, June 11, 1880 and married Anna Huston, daughter of Col. Daniel Huston who graduated from West Point in June, 1848. This military inheritance resulted in the rearing of three sons who all had positions of prominence in the army, — Major Philip Huston Torrey,— Major Daniel Huston Torrey and Captain Henry Pierce Torrey. Major Zerah died at Iloilo in the Philippines and is buried in Arlington National Cemetery. Major Philip is in the Marine Corps, stationed at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. Major Daniel graduated at West Point, June 15, 1910; Adjutant U. S. Military Acad., West Point. Capt. Henry served with the Marine Corps at Port au Prince, Haiti and died Sept. 24, 1918 at sea of pneumonia.

2412653 Elbridge Torrey was a prominent merchant of Boston, senior member of the firm of Torrey, Bright and Capen,— carpets. He was educated at Peirce Academy, Middleboro, Mass. and graduated from the State Normal School of Bridgewater, Mass. He taught school for some years and was principal of the grammar school in Weymouth, Mass., and later of the high school in South Weymouth. He had great aptitude for teaching and planned to make it his life work but after a few years of this experience and a course of study in Paris and Berlin he returned home Jan. 1, 1862 and decided to enter upon a business career which he continued for nearly fifty years. He was first a partner with Joseph Lovejoy, then a member of the firm of Fowle, Torrey & Co., and finally president of the incorporated firm of Torrey, Bright and Capen. Either for business or pleasure he crossed the ocean seventy-eight times. In the spring of 1883 he went to Turkey as a member of a deputation sent by the A. B. C. F. M., spending several months visiting many missionary stations and churches. He was often solicited to accept political appointment but exactly as often he declined, but he took a prominent part in the educational and religious life of his home town of Dorchester. Mr. Torrey was a trustee of Mount Holyoke College,— of the Hartford Theological Seminary, — of Bradford Academy,— of the Home for Aged Couples, Dorchester,— and for a time was President of the Central Turkey College.

252425 Franklin Torrey had the following obituary in the New York Herald of Nov. 18, 1912. "Franklin Torrey died in his residence at Florence, Italy, Monday night at the age of eighty-three, succumbing to heart failure following an attack of bronchitis. Dean of the American Colony, here, Mr. Torrey was a sculptor and at one time was the proprietor of the Carrara Marble Works. Mr. Torrey, who has resided in Italy for more than half a century, was formerly American Consul General at Genoa. Coming abroad to study art in Rome, he happened to make a short sojourn in Carrara, and, realizing the business possibilities there, he temporarily abandoned sculpture and devoted himself to the development of the marble industry. His death was announced, this morning, in the American Church which was built under his supervision and which is regarded as a memorial of his work by the American Colony here."

(NS)341 Hon. James Cranswick Tory, Lieut. Gov. of Nova Scotia, was educated at the Wesleyan Theological College, and at McGill University, Montreal. He was identified in prominent capacities with the Sun Life Ins. Co. of Canada, being made Supt. of Agencies in Montreal in 1915. He was elected to the Nova Scotia Legislature in 1911 and served until 1920, and in 1921 was made Minister without Portfolio. He has been Lieut. Gov. since 1925.

(NS)342 Dr. Henry Marshall Tory has been head of the National Research Council at Ottawa since 1928. From 1908 to 1928 he was President of the University of Alberta. He was educated at McGill Univ., Montreal, and at Cambridge, Eng., graduating from the former institution in 1890. In 1896 he received the degree of M.A.,— that of D.Sc. in 1903,— LL.D. St. Francis Xavier, 1905,— LL.D., McGill, 1908. He was for some time a professor at McGill and was made member of several prominent Canadian commissions. A manual of physics and papers upon a number of educational and scientific subjects bear his imprint.

(NY)5 Gilbert Torrey came to Cornwall, N. Y. over a century ago and established himself as the "village blacksmith," his smithy being on the main street and occupying the corner opposite the one on which the Cornwall National Bank was erected. He also operated a trip hammer on the Idlewild Creek near the home now occupied by Oscar Anderson. His ancestral home has been occupied for over a hundred years by members of the family. In 1830 he helped organize and became a member of the Canterbury Fire Company and his certificate of membership is a treasured memento held by one of his grandsons. His signature, shown on page 407 was reproduced from a very large stone water jug on which he had traced it. His interesting "grandfather's clock" is now owned by his grandson, Gilbert T. Cocks.

To the Torreys of America
Dear Friends:

Type has been set for the last page. Mrs. Torrey, unassisted, has finished the index,-a labor of over two hundred hours. We are now in the hands of our most interested and efficient printer.

For over thirty years I have been in communication with you. The letters that you have written me have been most interesting, throwing light on the living and social conditions of all parts of our country,-New England, the Middle West, the South, the Pacific Coast, the Ranch Country. We shall miss your newsy letters as we make our bow and close our genealogical work.

One field remains open. If all of you who have made ancestral fan-charts will send me copies, I will add what I can from the charts of others and file yours for future aid.

I hope that you will like this book and will write me about it, correcting any errors and making any additions that you can. I have done my best for you.

Faithfully yours,

Frederic C. Torrey

*Numbers refer to pages. The Introduction, the Military and Pension Records, and the Historical Material on page 424 are not indexed. In many cases, especially under Torreys, a manifest nickname is listed under full name, as Betty-Betsey-Elizabeth; Carrie-Caroline; Fannie-Frances; Frank-Francis; Harry-Henry; Hattie-Harriet; Jennie-Jane; Kate-Kittie-Katherine; Libbie-Lizzie-Elizabeth; Maggie-Margaret; Mattie-Martha; Molly-Mary; Sally-Sarah; Etc. Middle names and initials have become so common in later generations that space requires their omission. If anyone is known only by his middle name, "I'm sorry".
